

Veterinary Care Standard Operating Guidelines

Veterinary Care Staff

- Veterinarians
- Veterinary Technicians
- Veterinary Assistants

Qualifications:

- Veterinarians –
- Veterinary Technicians –
- Veterinary Assistants –

Credentialing

-

Check-In

- Identification
- Orientation
- Assignments

Staff Responsibilities (brief description)

- Veterinarians –
- Veterinary Technicians –
- Veterinary Assistants –

Job Action Sheets (separate pages – in detail)

Intake Process – Vet Check

- Protocol as it pertains to the entire Intake Process
- Vet Check Checklist (separate page)
- ID check – Look entire body over for tattoo,
- Scan for Microchip – Record information found in medical record and report to individual handling identification.
- Flea/Tick Treatment
- Deworming

Health Status Categories (separate page)

- Color Code
 - Green – Overall good health. No physical illness or injury. May have parasites, skin irritation, or other mild or chronic condition not requiring immediate medical attention. Normal temperature. Bright/alert.
 - Yellow – Good health, but may have minor scratches or abrasions that need tending to. Normal temperature. Bright/alert.